

Crew Information

Experience Crews

These crews are designed to give youth participants a small taste of what goes into a production. The time commitment is minimal and there are no fees to participate on an experience crew.

Running Crews

These crews are essential to the production of a show and carry a large time commitment. Youth members of these crews will work with trained professionals and receive quality instruction on an introductory level. There are fees required to participate on running crews.

Guild Program (Members Only)

This is a specified training program through which youth participants are able to develop master-level skills for any running crew and work up to supervising those crews themselves.
